

Howard Guilty As Charged

Ronald A. Howard, resigned executive director of the Contra Costa County Housing Authority was found guilty by a federal court jury late yesterday morning. Howard will be sentenced March 8.

The jury deliberated from 10:45 a.m. Wednesday until 11:50 a.m. yesterday.

Howard was charged by a federal grand jury last December with the conversion of government property to personal use.

THE SPECIFIC charge was that he took 2574 feet of pipe in 1954 when he was an official of the Public Housing Administration in San Francisco. He has claimed that he was given the pipe by a Santa Barbara Housing Authority official, who is now deceased.

George B. Harris, federal district court judge, charged Frank P. Cornish, Howard's attorney, with "obstructing justice" during the February 6 session of the trial.

The judge's remarks came while the jury was out of the court room and Cornish asked for an acquittal on the grounds the United States lacked evidence to convict Howard.

Howard has testified that the pipe was given to him in 1951 by Fred I. Lawrence.

HARRIS STATED his belief that Howard knew the pipe was government property and not private property as Howard has claimed throughout the trial.

Harris pointed out that the pipe had remained on government property until 1954. Witnesses for the government have testified that Howard ordered the pipe shipped to the Richmond Housing Authority located "at a private Martinez address."

HARRIS CONTINUED that the pipe was "clearly earmarked for government use and not junk." Bernard Petri, prosecuting attorney for the United States, pointed out in his closing arguments to the jury that the pipe was "salvaged and in excellent condition."

He stated that portions of the pipe had already been used at the Santa Barbara project.

The case went to a jury of nine men and three women early Wednesday morning.

Howard, who was chief of the personal property section, admitted after prolonged questioning that he did not ask why the pipe, which Howard claimed was a personal gift, was stored in a government stock yard. He also stated that the pipe was not being used by the government.

HOWARD HAS also admitted under questioning that he used the pipe to connect his home on Alhambra Valley Road in Martinez to a water main.

Howard formerly resided in Pleasant Hill. Petri also charged Howard with the falsification of a travel voucher repared by Howard in 1954 showing that Howard had spent five hours on official business in a Paso Robles Housing project when the project was closed.

In the arguments before the jury, however, Petri commented that Howard was not on trial for the falsification of government travel vouchers, but rather for stealing pipe from the United States Government.

CORNISH SUMMED UP his arguments to the jury late Tuesday by commenting that Howard had no intention of stealing the pipe, but thought it was a gift.

Howard has testified that the late Robert Rainey, a housing authority official was also given the pipe as a gift by Lawrence.

Under the fire of Petri, Howard stated that he and Rainey had intended on going into business together and were close friends.

After further interrogation, Howard was unable to name members of the Rainey family; did not know the date of Rainey's death, the month or the year and did not report to the estate of Rainey that a portion of the pipe belonged to Rainey.

CONFLICTING STORIES told by Howard on how he obtained the pipe were presented to the court. Petri called Sun staffer Bob Rapida to verify that in May of 1957 at a Contra Costa Housing Authority meeting in Martinez, Howard told the press that he had obtained the pipe "eight or nine years ago in the mountains and it was a small amount and unimportant."

The suspension of Howard had been asked at the May meeting by two commissioners of the authority on the grounds of charges made by ousted maintenance superintendent Fred Anthon of Concord and investigations by J. J. Sullivan, federal investigator of the compliance division of the Federal Home and Housing Administration, a division of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government.

Anthon charged irregularities in the operations of the Contra Costa Housing Authority and in Howard's past when he was with the federal agency. The charges were revealed first in The Sun last April.

Anthon charged he was fired because he told all he knew to Sullivan. The Contra Costa Housing Authority Commissioners have stated that Anthon's position was eliminated in a budget cut. The suspension of Howard was voted down.

G. T. GUNDERSON, executive director of the Santa Barbara Authority, testified that his signature had been forged on a surplus stock report. Miss Vivian Van Alstyne, a secretary of the authority, stated that revised portions of a surplus stock report, minus the government pipe, were submitted to the authority.

Petri charged that no one had a reason except Howard to forge the signature and to alter the report except Howard to "cover up his deed."

Howard, who was on the stand for three days, testified that he was given the pipe by Lawrence for "special favors" he had done for him.

He listed some of the favors as setting up chairs at conventions and the retention of some fire fighting equipment in Santa Barbara.

UNDER CROSS EXAMINATION by Petri, Howard admitted that he did not have anything to do with the retention of the fire fighting equipment in Santa Barbara and that setting up chairs at conventions and seeing that facilities were available were just a portion of his official duties.

Petri reminded Howard that there is a law against accepting favors in return for services performed in regular line of duty.

Howard admitted that he knew of the law after reading a PHA form presented by Petri on rules and regulations for government employees.

Jack Buchter "Critical" After Crash

Jacob J. "Jack" Buchter, 40, well-known Orinda architect who was injured with two other men in a two-car crash Saturday night, remained on the critical list Thursday at Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Oakland.

Hospital authorities said that he has "shown very slight improvement" since being admitted to the hospital. They reported that he is being "carefully watched" and that special nurses are assigned to him on a "round-the-clock basis."

Police reported that the crash occurred late Saturday night on Mt. Diablo Boulevard, three quarters of a mile west of Lafayette.

They said Buchter of No. 1 Heather Lane, Orinda, was driving east when his car was hit by a westbound car driven by Donald R. Gorman, 25, Oakland.

Buchter sustained serious head injuries. A passenger in the car, Leslie Wigginton, El Cerrito, was treated at Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Walnut Creek for head, chest and internal injuries.

Gorman also received head, chest and internal injuries.

The Rains Came, Almost 5 Inches

With temperatures remaining moderate in the area over the past week, Orinda soaked up nearly five inches of rainfall over the seven-day period. The year's total now stands at 28.08 inches.

The heavy rainfall, which left many Orinda area roads in quagmire condition, began on last Friday when 1.20 inches fell. Rains continued every day through Wednesday when 1.65 inches dropped. Another heavy rainfall was recorded Sunday when 1.30 inches pattered down.

Orinda Sun Receives 'General Excellence' Award

The Orinda Sun has again been honored by being awarded Second Place in "General Excellence" among weekly newspapers in California for the second consecutive year by the California Newspaper Publishers Association.

The award was presented to The Sun by Governor Goodwin Knight at the Award Breakfast at the CNAFA convention at the Hotel Coronado in Coronado.

The Sun also received First Place in "Outstanding Disinterested Community Service," a competition which included both daily and weekly newspapers in the State, and First Place in "Newspaper Promotion" for all weekly newspapers throughout the State.

Upon receiving the awards, Sun Publisher Herman Silverman said:

"WE REALLY WANT to thank the Orinda community for its support and help through the past year. That is what has made these awards possible."

"We want to thank the many community leaders and organizations which have cooperated so wholeheartedly with The Sun. We shall continue to try to improve the paper in order to serve the community better."

"We are, as always, aware that a successful newspaper is a community effort, and we will welcome any suggestions that will help us to maintain and improve the quality and service of The Sun."

The award for Outstanding Disinterested Community Service was given primarily for The Sun's work in exposing the situation in the Housing authority, its campaign against the situation existing in the District Attorney's office, reporting the mess in the Recorder's Office, and the continuing campaign for better, cleaner county government.

The award for "General Excellence" included judging of all facets of the newspaper, including presswork, composition, display and classified advertising as well as the quality of the news stories, pictures and headlines.

"I feel that this award belongs to each member of The Sun staff, too," said Silverman, "because each has contributed to the overall quality of the newspaper."

The award for "Newspaper Promotion" was made to the paper which best presented its facilities to the community and included such categories as the use of classified advertising, etc.

In addition to receiving the award for "General Excellence" last year, The Sun also won Second Place for "Best Women's Interests Coverage."

The Sun has won 13 state and national awards since 1951, a national First Place award for "Newspaper Promotion and Community Relations" last year.

Pine Grove Apartment Plan Withdrawn

Library Plans Take Final Form; Construction Soon

Orinda's long-sought-after library is out of the drawing board and ready for construction this spring and completion by fall, according to the library board.

In a complete report to the community, Brown noted that the fund is now only $23,000 short of its $120,000 goal for the modern, 4700 square foot structure.

In reporting on most recent developments, Brown said that a special committee just completed a canvass of several hundred families, some of whom had just moved into Orinda, and none of whom had ever contributed to the fund.

ALTHOUGH FINAL returns on the drive are not yet in, Brown said, the drive produced approximately $3000 in new funds. He stated that total contributions received by the library board now approximate $97,000.

Of this amount, Brown explained, $2500 was contributed in materials, $75,800 in bank savings, $2500 was disbursed for architecture fees, land survey and soil tests, $3000 is in a checking account, and the remainder is in pledges.

"Since we now know the cost of the project as presently revised," Brown said, "will closely approximate $120,000, without cost of landscaping, it's clear that there is only about $23,000 yet to be raised. Several thousand dollars of this sum are expected to be secured in the form of contribution of materials."

BROWN FURTHER explained, "Since we have authorized the architects to proceed, and further since this library and the Orinda Library Board cannot permit itself or the community to wind up with a deficit it will be seen that we have confidence that others in the community will now come forward with major contributions to enable us to complete the financial aspects without delay."

Construction will start this spring and the library will be dedicated this fall," Brown concluded.

Building committee chairman George H. Hauerken reported that test borings of the library property by soil engineers revealed the need for increased foundation costs due to unfavorable sub-soil conditions in certain areas. These costs, he said, will amount to several thousand dollars to guard against settling and slippage.

HAUERKEN REPORTED that an accurate survey of the library site has been made and two progress payments, totaling $2000, have been made to the architects.

On the first of the month, he said, the architects, Aitken and Collin, were authorized to proceed with final plans and specifications. The present schedule calls for completion by March 10. Within a week after that, he said, bids will go out to the contractors.

Hauerken said that many building changes have been made to keep within the sum of $120,000. The proposed hyperbolic roof has been eliminated in favor of a conventional roof. The $5000 savings in the change, Hauerken said, will be used to restore 900 square feet to the reading room area. The room will now be 60 x 60 feet as originally planned, he said.

He reported that outside patio area has also been restored to the plans. The total area of the building, Hauerken reported, will be about 4700 square feet.

OTHER ELIMINATIONS, Hauerken said, include a reduction of $8000 for equipment, $5000 for conditioning, and $9000 in other eliminations.

The board again reported that contributions of $1000 or more, whether in cash, materials, or securities, qualify the donors to have their names engraved on the sponsors' plaque to be permanently displayed in the library building. All contributions will be registered in a book of remembrance to be maintained in the library.

President Brown noted, "Marketable securities that have materially increased in value over purchase cost are by far the cheapest form of contribution for many people and frankly we hope some more of our Orindans adopt this form of contribution to the fund."

CONTRIBUTIONS to the Orinda Library Building Fund are tax deductible, state and federal, up to 20 per cent of the donor's adjusted gross income, Brown explained.

He further pointed out that policies set up at the start of the project remain unchanged. Everyone working is donating both time and money and salaries are paid only of the members. All funds collected by the fund are to be used solely for the library project.

"We urge new contributions now—of any size—from new contributors and also from those who previously indicated an intent to make additional contributions. Financing costs of your library will be reduced if delinquents pay up and those on arrears may accelerate payments when possible," Brown concluded.

Low Gas Prices Prevail; War's End Not Seen

The East Bay's month-old gas war has apparently settled on a universally low but stable prices over the past week with operators none too optimistic over an "armistice" but doggedly determined to "ride it out."

Prices for regular gasoline were quoted as being the same on Thursday in Lafayette-Walnut Creek and Orinda—21.9 cents a gallon.

The price on regular was approximately the same as last week. However, last week some stations were sporadically selling regular for as low as 19.9 and 20.9. Some stations in Oakland were rumored last week to be selling non-premium gas for as low as 18.9.

MEANWHILE, reported low prices on regular gas this week were an one Richmond service station and at several outlets in Oakland where the prices of 18.9 reported.

Prices on premium gas varied from community to community this week in the Lafayette-Walnut Creek-Orinda-Pleasant Hill area. The average was about 26.9 a gallon, with stations varying in their prices from a high of 29.9 to a low of 25.9.

A Walnut Creek operator reported that local operators were still participating in the war, despite rumors that some East Bay stations had locked up and dropped out of the "combat." As for the duration, he opined that it looks as if it "will keep going a little while yet."

Prices in Walnut Creek were 21.9 for regular, 27.9 premium. An Orinda operator noted that his prices were 21.9, regular, and 29.9 premium, although one chain outlet was selling high-test gas for about a cent less.

AS FOR THE OUTLOOK, he commented, "There's been some talk about an end of the war at the end of the week. But this is the end of the week and we're still going. There hasn't been any word so far so we're just trying to get along as best we can and cutting back on our help till the thing ends."

A Lafayette operator remarked that the price of regular was remaining at 21.9. His station, he said, was selling premium for 25.9 although the price of premium in the community varied from 24.9 to 27.9.

"It's hard to say," he remarked, "when prices will go up. We'll all have to get together to bring it about and so far there've been no rumors."

1st Step Taken by Transit District For Key Purchase

The California Public Utilities Commission will be asked to place a value on holdings of Key System by the Alameda Contra Costa Transit District in a formal request Thursday.

This will be the first move by the two county district to take over the operations of the private transit facility.

THE PUC is expected to set value on some 256 buses and an undetermined number of trains which the district proposes to use.

The formal request was slated action on sending of the request to be sent out Wednesday, but was delayed so that transit officials could consult with members of the California Toll Bridge Authority which owns the Bay Bridge tracks and 37 of the transit bay trains.

In the discussion of a time schedule for the taking over of the Key System at the Claremont Hotel Headquarters of the Transit District, the directors pointed out that it would be at least two years before the district could take over operations.

IN THE PROPOSAL to buy out the 256 Key System buses, the directors voted not to purchase any gas driven equipment. The directors commented they would seek to acquire between 10 and 15 trains, but did not enlarge on the point.

The actual total of trains to be purchased was left up to Robert Nisbet, attorney-secretary of the district and the engineering firm of DeLeuw Cather and Company to decide by the directors.

The actual decision of how many trains the district will seek to purchase was left pending a decision of whether the district would adopt a plan of the engineering firm calling for transfers to bridge trains from interurban buses. Also in question is whether several routes now operated by Key with trains would be switched to buses.

ROBERT BARTON, representing the engineering firm, informed the directors that some $385,000 would be needed to make track repairs in Oakland and Berkeley. The money is needed to repair the E and F lines presently operated by Key System.

Barton termed the work to be done as "urgently necessary right now." The Key System has been under a $100,000 bond to perform the necessary street repairs, but now, according to observers, the district has become the heir apparent to the street repair bills.

In discussion of the time table, Nisbet noted that it might take a full year for the PUC study to establish a fair value for the Key holdings.

NISBET COMMENTED, however, that the work could be

Builder Says He Will Abide by Orinda Decision

After his plans for a $2 million dollar apartment development in Orinda Pine Grove failed to meet with approval from the Orinda Association's planning committee, Douglas Manuel, 550 Miner Road, Tuesday night withdrew his application for rezoning from the county planning commission.

Only a handful of Orinda residents were present at the planning commission session—a contrast to the "packed house" crowds which jammed commission hearings last year. The Pine Grove was then rezoned from a single-family residential area to "administrative offices."

Manuel told The Sun that he was glad to abide by the decision of the Orinda Association and that he had no intention of requesting a hearing before the county planning commission. He was therefore withdrawing his application, he said.

MANUEL, WHO had planned to construct 144 apartment units in Pine Grove, said that since his proposal had met with disfavor by the Orinda Association he had no intention of doing anything with the 10.8 acre site.

He explained that a clause in his contract with the present owners, the Miramonte Association, provided that if plans for the apartment development failed to materialize the site would remain in the hands of Miramonte Association.

"I am not planning on doing anything with Pine Grove," Manuel explained to this newspaper, "I have another similar site elsewhere in the county and I plan on concentrating on developing that."

THE PREVIOUS evening's report from the Orinda Association's planning committee had concluded with, "Mr. Manuel has indicated a willingness not to come forward with his application if he does not have the support of Orinda community."

Last year the Pacific International Express Company sought to use the 10.8 acre Pine Grove property for a plush, $750,000 headquarters office building. The proposal was met with strenuous opposition from the Orinda Association.

PIE later sold the property to the Miramonte Association and build Manuel subsequently filed for rezoning to multiple family dwelling.

Reporting on Manuel's request, the Orinda Association's Planning committee said that approval would interfere with consideration of the Orinda Master Plan by the county later this year.

MULTIPLE FAMILY development would not produce enough taxes to offset the increased load on schools and other community services, the group added.

The planning committee recommended that the first multiple family development should be on a smaller scale. Individual sale of the 36 apartment buildings would have allowed 13 families an acre instead of the two families an acre as favored by Orindans, the group explained.

The association said speculative increases in the property's value in recent years which had encouraged Manuel to seek multiple family development were not valid and should not force the community to accept a land use that was not beneficial.

Orinda Library To Receive 1890 Invitation

The Orinda Library will soon be presented with a framed invitation, dated 1890 and believed to be one of the oldest papers pertaining to hite community.

The invitation, addressed to Albert Stone and family, was presented by Mrs. A. C. Moughin, Alamo, granddaughter of Mr. Stone, after whom Stone Valley was named.

The invitation was presented by Mrs. Moughin to Perc Brown, Orinda, who has been active in library organization drives.

Brown told The Sun he intends to frame the invitation and present it to the Orinda Library.

The ornate engraved invitation requested the Stone family to attend a Natal Day celebration on the Fourth of July, 1890, at Wagner's Beach, Orinda Park.

Any persons who have other old documents or papers of interest and who would like to have them on display in the library may do so by making arrangements with Perc Brown of Orinda.

Production No Longer "Absurdia"

If the Orinda Association backs next spring's production of "Absurdia in Suburbia" the production won't be known by that name.

The Association, which two weeks ago agreed tentatively to underwrite the musical satire, Monday night decided against using the traditional name, "Absurdia in Suburbia."

The Association's action came after the group reviewed a letter which the Orinda Mothers' Club in effect announced that they had "staked a claim on the title."

THE MOTHERS' CLUB in years past, had sponsored the musical spoof on suburban living.

With one member voting against the proposal, the board members voted for abiding by the wishes of the Mothers' Club in not using the name without the permission of the Mothers' Club.

Meanwhile, the board decided to consult with the Orinda women who had requested the Association's sponsorship of the musical in order to see if the women would consider producing the satire under another name such as the "Orinda Follies."

At an earlier meeting of the Association, Mrs. Marie Monahan and Mrs. Winnie Gilmore had requested that the Association back a revival of "Absurdia."

IN OTHER BUSINESS, Orinda Association board members declined to append an amendment to the land trade agreement with the Orinda Community Church. The agreement will be as it originally was, with the Association free to build a substandard road to its land site.

Concerning membership, the membership committee reported that it would have all the material ready by Monday. The campaign, it was announced, would close by March 5 and that the major part of the campaign would be conducted on the weekend of March 1 and 2.

Board members moved to bring the matter of endorsement of the proposed school tax hike before the civic affairs committee.

Wheels-Rotary Have Meeting

Brutus Hamilton, track coach at the University of California, addressed the combined meeting of the Orinda Rotary Club and the Miramonte Wheels Wednesday.

Hamilton chose as his topic Abe Lincoln, with the accent on the athletic phase of his life. He noted that Lincoln was an all-around athlete, with achievements in wrestling, weight-lifting, running, jumping and rail-splitting.

Hamilton explained that when Lincoln was elected and went to the White House he took with him a heavy, double-edged axe and dared any visitor to hold the axe on straight between the handle and his thumb and forefinger. Lincoln was the only person able to perform the feat, Hamilton said.

The Miramonte Wheels are a junior version of the Rotary Club. Founded two years ago by the Rotary, this was the third meeting with the parent group.

TERENCE RING

Ring Confirms Candidacy for WC Judgeship

Terence Ring, 37, Walnut Creek attorney, this week formally announced his candidacy for justice of the peace of the Walnut Creek Judicial District.

Ring has been a practicing attorney in this area for 13 years. He is presently a partner in the law firm of Ring and Turner, with which is brother, Jim, is also associated.

He graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in 1944 where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa key and earned letters in track and football. In 1945 he graduated from the University of California School of Law.

Long active in community affairs in the Walnut Creek area, Ring is currently the exalted ruler of the Walnut Creek Elks Lodge, and is the legal advisor to the Mt. Diablo Council of PTA.

He helped reorganize the Walnut Festival after World War II and served as president of the Walnut Festival Association in 1952.

He was charter president of the Walnut Creek Kiwanis Club, and helped to reorganize the Walnut Creek Area Chamber of Commerce in 1947 and served as a director for one term.

For seven years, Ring represented the Walnut Creek School District as a member of the Walnut Creek School District as a member of the Walnut Creek Recreation Commission.

He is a member of the California Bar Association and the American Bar Association, and several other social and civic organizations in the area. Serving the community as justice of the peace is a long-time ambition of Ring's, developed during his many years of law practice in the area.

"The Justice Court is the closest contact the average citizen has with our court system," he said. "It is a position of trust and responsibility which requires a person with experiences in human affairs, a knowledge of the area and its problems, and a thorough background in the general concept of the law."

Ring said he believes his long experience in the area, the broad scope of his law practice and his long interest in community activities qualify him for the position.

CC Grand Jury Forms Committee For Housing Authority Study

A special committee of the Contra Costa Grand Jury was formed Monday night in Richmond to further investigations of possible misuse of government funds in the Contra Costa Housing Authority.

Tuesday, the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors instructed District Attorney Francis Collins to continue investigations into the complex dial equipment in the operations of the governmental agency.

COLLINS REPORTED to the supervisors that he had reported to the grand jury that he believed there were some "shennanagans" in the operations of the authority.

Foreman William Hale of Diablo commented that the purpose of the special committee, headed by George Johnston of El Cerrito, was to see if and where the county is involved in reported irregularities. Collins stated that the grand jury and his office can only be concerned in irregularities that are involved with county funds. Other instances fall into the authority of the federal government.

THE GRAND JURY, according to reports of observers in Richmond Monday night, will audit trips and monies expended by the authority and ask for a complete audit of the books.

The Sun learned from sources close to the Housing Authority that great sums had been spent by commissioners of the Authority and employees of the Authority over the past years. The Sun requested the information first and it was released to the public press in late December by Warren Harrold, executive director.

Also to be reviewed by the Grand Jury will be the federal executive director of the Contra Costa Housing Authority, and a transcript of the case.

(For trial of Howard see separate story on this page.)

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Contra Costa Housing Authority was held yesterday afternoon and election of officers for the year was conducted. The monthly business meeting was conducted following the election.

Results of the meeting were not known as The Sun went to press.

Board Renames Road Between US 40, Orinda

Following the wishes of nearly a thousand petitioners, the Board of Supervisors this week officially named a portion of the stretch of highway between Orinda and Highway 40 in San Pablo "San Pablo Dam Road."

In so doing, the supervisors brushed aside such other popular cognomens as Camino Pablo, Orinda Highway and Moraga Highway. The name "San Pablo Dam Road" will apply to the road from the San Pablo city limits to the intersection with Bear Creek Road.

From that point, the road and the new Orinda bypass will be known as "Camino Pablo" as wished by Orinda residents.

Orinda Phone Installation Half Complete

"We're past the halfway mark."

That was how Howard Greenhalgh described the installation progress on the $1,000,000 project to bring Orinda a new dial telephone system and nationwide direct distance dialing.

Greenhalgh, Pacific Telephone manager here reported that Western Electric Company crews are more than halfway through installing the complex dial equipment in Orinda's new telephone building on Santa Maria Way.

"Work is going right ahead on 'schedule,'" he said, "and the new system should be completed and ready for service this summer."

The telephone manager added, however, that it is still a little too soon to set an exact starting date.

Some 25 men from the Western Electric Company, which manufactures and installs telephone equipment, began to hook up the Orinda equipment last October.

Before they are through, they will have installed thousands of feet of cable, and connected hundreds of thousands of tiny tubes, light switches, and wires.

Of such things are dial telephone systems made.

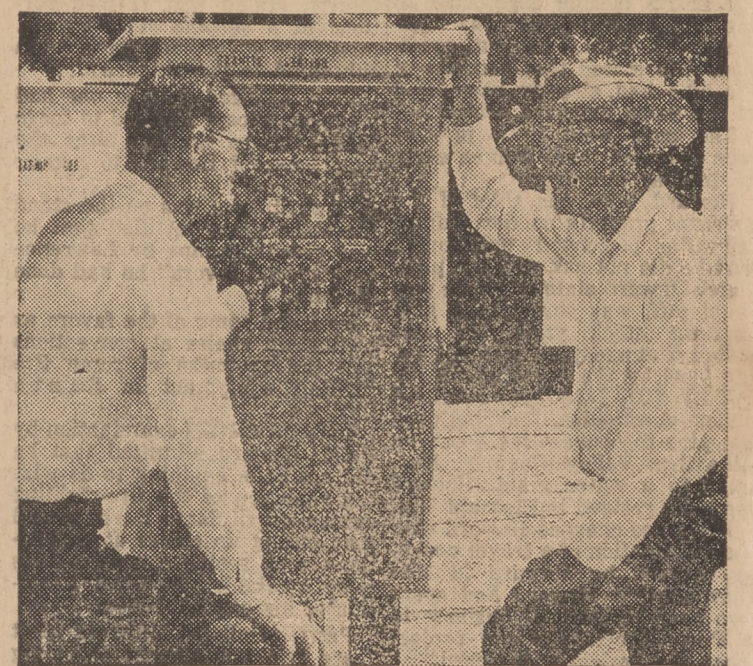

Not only will the new project bring Orinda nationwide dialing, but it is designed to meet the ever expanding demand for telephone service in the area.

CREDIT

Installation credit extended to buyers of new and used cars amounted to 16.39 billion dollars during the year ended September 30, 1957, reports the National Automobile Club.

WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

See that box on the telephone pole? It helps seven phone calls travel at the same time along this one pair of wires. That means one pair of wires is doing the job of seven! You'll get an idea of how it works if you think of a freeway, with cars running side by side in separate lanes. To carry your calls, a carrier system sets up separate voice lanes, or frequencies. With these extra voice lanes, phone lines can work a lot harder for you. Especially in rural areas, carrier systems are helping us bring more service to more people.

When a fuse blows out at your house do you sometimes have a tough time seeing which one to replace? In a phone office, the grasshopper fuse (left) helps solve that problem. (And it does kind of look like a grasshopper, don't you think?) When this fuse blows out, a colored bead springs out on a metal arm. So our people can spot it in a jiffy. Little things like this speed up repairs, save time when minutes count.

Growing With Contra Costa County—Many local telephone users have asked about the construction work being done on the Concord Telephone Office. This enlargement is part of a two million dollar expansion program to increase telephone facilities in Contra Costa County.

Upon completion the building will more than triple its present size. Many operator services which have been handled in Oakland will now be located at this office. This includes additional dialing equipment, informational services, and local and long distance operator positions. It is estimated that it will require approximately one hundred employees to handle these services. Pacific Telephone

ASSESSED VALUATION PER PUPIL 1957-58

Trustees Stress Need For School Tax Boost

Acalanes High School District trustees today released a comparative study of the tax wealth behind each pupil enrolled in the Acalanes school districts. The high school district is seeking approval of a 50-cent boost in the district's current $1.75 tax limit in an election February 25.

Trustees stated that their study indicates, "there is no doubt that we have the students, but that we are definitely short on the tax wealth behind each pupil." Trustee chairman Will C. Hall said that the study in a sample example shows that "the Acalanes District area—elementary through high school—has 14,000 students as compared to wealthier districts, such as Pittsburg which has 5,000 students and a much richer industrial tax base."

The study shows about $6200 in taxable wealth behind each pupil in the Acalanes District area

School Tax Boosters Grow

The Parents Committee for the Acalanes High School District Tax Limit Proposal disclosed today that the list of community organizations endorsing the proposal to boost the high school tax limit 50 cents, continues to grow.

As of Tuesday, February 11, these groups have joined the corps of organizations endorsing the new limit.

The Lafayette Improvement Association board of directors; the Orinda Chamber of Commerce; the board of the Orinda Branch of the AAUW; three separate public meetings at Acalanes, Las Lomas and Miramonte High Schools; Parkmead PTA executive board; Stanley School Parents Club; Orinda High School Mothers Club; the Lafayette PTA, and high school parents clubs.

Trustees stated that they expect additional endorsements from other community organizations before the election date Tuesday, February 25.

HEART FACTS
The American Heart Association, with its affiliates and chapters, is the only national voluntary health agency devoted exclusively to combating the heart and blood vessel diseases.

Bridge Users Will Pay 60 Pct. of South Crossing

Approximately 90 percent of the cost of the proposed Southern Crossing Bridge would be paid for by users of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, according to a report of the State Department of Public Works.

The proposed bridge would link Army Street in San Francisco to Bay Island in the East Bay.

THE REPORT was compiled by Coverdale and Colpitts, engineering consultants of New York. The firm made other similar studies for the State in 1955 and 1956. The report considers traffic and revenue prospects for eight possible developments on the grounds that "the Southern Crossing Bridge must be built if funds are available."

The complete project is expected to cost some $249 million. A partial project (without approaches) would cost some $171 million.

GEORGE BURPEE, an executive of the engineering firm, said that a variable is the State plan for reconstruction of the Bay Bridge to a freeway type span, with five lanes for one span and five for the other with one way traffic on each deck.

This project has been estimated by engineers to cost $35 million and would be paid without increase bridge fares or bond elections.

Burpee commented that the reconstruction would eliminate congestion on the Bay Bridge until 1972, the next 14 years.

AT PRESENT the reconstruction plan to increase the vehicular capacity of the Bay Bridge and to remove the train tracks is under the fire of the Alameda Contra Costa Transit District which seeks to retain the tracks for future use.

Burpee noted that Bay Bridge users would pay 90 percent of the bill. Dumbarton and San Mateo bridge users would pay eight percent of the bill.

"The traffic induced by the southern crossing will pay only two percent of the cost," Burpee stated.

HE INDICATED that in spite of the facts presented in the report there is a possibility of building the bridge.

This possibility rests with a financial feasibility report on the proposed project which is expected to be ready for distribution sometime in March.

Real Estaters Course Available

A course in "Trends and Factors Influencing Real Estate" is being held in Walnut Creek this spring, it was announced by the Contra Costa County Real Estate Board.

Registration for all classes within the Real Estate Certificate Program is open to those holding a real estate salesman's in fields related to real estate, and past students of real estate.

Others interested in this program may enroll after taking the basic course, "Trends and Factors Influencing Real Estate" which is open to all applicants.

This program of continuing education in real estate has been devised to assist individual brokers and salesmen to increase and broaden their knowledge of their profession. Further information and application forms may be obtained by writing University Extension, 2441 Bancroft Way, Berkeley 4, Calif.

ROAD BUILDING
Road building crews completed 1,255.2 miles of the Interstate Highway System during the period from July 1, 1956, when the program was started, to December 31, 1957 reports the National Automobile Club.

Sheriff Brown Will Seek Reelection on His 'Record'

Harry A. Brown announced this week that he will be up for reelection as the Sheriff of Contra Costa County.

In his statement Brown said: "I will run on my record."

"The voters believed me in 1954 when I promised to modernize the Sheriff's Office of Contra Costa. Since I have taken office a criminal division, staffed with detectives, has been established and recovery rates for stolen property have been phenomenal," Brown continued.

"The appointment of a chief of administrative services has resulted in modernization of clerical functions."

"With the appointment of a Chief Juvenile Control officer a constructive program has been established to curb juvenile delinquency," the Sheriff stated.

"The citizens of Contra Costa County will never be satisfied with a mediocre Sheriff's Department nor with entrusting the direction of their revitalized and dynamic department to untried hands," Brown said.

Before he took office in 1955, Brown had for 19 months been a lieutenant in charge of the patrol division under Sheriff James N. Long. He was separated from the Navy as a lieutenant after World War Two. He won office in the Grand Jury Asks Survey

The education committee of the grand jury has taken a definite stand in favor of the county-wide school site survey proposal made by Professor Odell and associates of Stanford University.

Having found that there is no mechanism permitting school boards to act together in ordering such a county-wide survey, it was recommended that this proposal be ordered out of county funds by the board of supervisors and that its results be made available free of charge to school boards for their use.

The entire grand jury concurred in this recommendation. The future savings to the county taxpayer could well be $1000 for each dollar spent on the survey, members said.

It was noted in this study that quite a number of the larger school districts have already had surveys by the Stanford University organization and that it is because of this background of information that Stanford can do the county survey cheaper than another similar group.

Field Service Asks for Funds

The Lafayette Foreign Exchange Committee of the American Field Service this week issued an appeal for contributions from area residents.

Mrs. Isadore Perlman, to whom contributions may be mailed, explained that funds are needed to aid in the American Field Service foreign exchange program.

Mrs. Perlman explained that under the program foreign and American high school students exchange schools for a school year. To date, she said, communities in the United States have provided scholarships of 1039 high school students to come to this country to learn our way of life.

Since the beginning of the program four years ago, Mrs. Perlman explained, eleven foreign students have been brought to this area and eight American students have gone to Europe. One or more Acalanes students will go to Europe this June, she said.

Don Foreign Students Swap High Schools

By JEANNE HUNNICUTT Acalanes AFS Club

This past week Acalanes students have noticed that their own exchange students, Irmey Sieber and Carlos Demiguel, are missing. Replacing the Austrian girl and Spanish boy are Aihlan Asi and Peter Haulte.

Aihlan and Peter are participating in the A.F.S. Exchange Week, during which foreign students throughout the U. S., trade schools for a week, acquiring a broader picture of American schools. The program gives the student experiences with new families, and with more teenagers. It brings Americans in contact with a greater number of nationalities.

Aihlan, who has been living in San Mateo, finds Lafayette very different. "It is so much like the country, and Acalanes is a much smaller high school. I am used to the city, because my home is in Istanbul, Turkey. I love both the city and the country, but this is a welcome change." Laughingly she says, "Of course this week is especially nice because I have no homework!" While Irmey takes her place in San Mateo, Aihlan is staying with Carol Gardner, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gardner, of 3312 Moraga Boulevard, Lafayette.

Peter, from St. Gallen, Switzerland, has changed places with Carlos Demiguel, who is spending his Exchange Week in Salinas. Peter, like Aihlan, says he is having a wonderful time, and is enjoying his new family and the change of towns tremendously. He is living with the Duncan Knudsens, at 3825 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette.

THE KIDS (moms and dads too) had a ball at the Sun's Annual Father's and Children's Game at St. Mary's College Saturday as can be proven by the expression on the faces of these youngsters during the varsity encounter between St. Mary's and Fresno State. Brother Albert, second picture, greeted the more than 1200 spectators on behalf of St. Mary's College during the half time festivities. Not only did the "guests" of The Sun, the student body and the St. Mary's alumni have a good time, but the Christian Brothers, who are instructors on the campus, were also transfixed by the fast play and hair raising action on the Moraga woods, third picture. The Cats and Cubs, fourth picture, grammar school team from St. Mary's in Berkeley put on a half time show that very few of the spectators will ever forget.

Parents form Advisory Group

Miramonte High School recently added another milestone to its rapidly growing past when the newly formed Parents' Advisory Committee under the chairmanship of Principal James A. Lewis held its first meeting Monday, January 20th. The advisory committee in addition to Miss Naomi Giddings and Mr. William Ross, Miramonte's Deans of Girls and Boys.

"The purpose of the Parents' Advisory Committee," states Lewis, "is to act as a sounding board for school policies and problems." He further says, "The committee will act as an advisory committee only and never as a policy-making body."

Some of the topics the committee will discuss are grading, seven-period day, counseling, math and science, and testing. The subject of discussion at the first meeting was Miramonte's policy concerning attendance, rules governing tardiness, and classroom behavior problems, all explained by Deans Giddings and Ross.

A representative number of people from all of the various areas served by Miramonte High School were chosen. Those who make up the committee besides Lewis, Miss Giddings and Ross are Mrs. Neighbor, Mrs. Scheffer, Mr. Cayting, Mr. Pridemore, Mrs. Blumer, Mrs. Schwarck, Mr. Moorehead, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Hightower, Mr. Crawford, Mr. Hart, Mr. Olsen, Mrs. Studley, and Mrs. Walling.

Post Prints Orinda Man's Short Novel

Prentiss C. Combs, 309 El Tonal, had the enviable opportunity to do some very rewarding research while reclining on a deck chair in Puerto Rico when he was doing public relations work there some time ago.

Combs' research, at the time the subject of more than a few jokes from his wife, paid off richly last month when the Saturday Evening Post published his novelette "The Man on the Beach."

As his subject matter, Combs, who as a free-lance writer had written for the Post previously, chose the tale of an affluent American tourist who winds up on a Puerto Rican beach after an alcoholic spree.

Divorced by his wife and resigned to a life of alcoholism, the protagonist, Jed Elliott is grieving over the drowning of his son. Elliott is befriended by two quaint Puerto Rican fishermen, Japheth and Don Leon who conspire to have Elliott take as his charge a young half-Puerto Rican orphan, Pablo.

The lengthy "short story" is packed with descriptive material concerning life on the island and the ways of the fishermen.

Combs is married and lives with his wife Lelia and three children in Orinda. He is employed in the president's office at his alma mater, the University of California.

Dinner Party Fetes Lavagetto

In honor of Harry Lavagetto, noted baseball figure who resides in Orinda, Paul Vashell hosted a dinner party at the Lake Merritt Hotel on Wednesday, February 5.

The festive party for the manager of the Washington Senators team who departs next week for spring training in Florida, was attended by a group of old friends who toasted the team's success with champagne and enjoyed dinner from a table especially decorated for the affair in a spring-time theme of daffodils and snapdragons. Individual corsages were given each lady guest.

In the absence of Gladys Vashell who has been ill, a niece, Joy Mazzini, assisted her uncle in hostess duties to greet guests who included Mary Lavagetto, wife of the distinguished athlete, Messrs. and Mesdames Walter Friberg, "Dolph" Pardini, Matt Radonich, Jack Cooper, Mac Macario, Bernard Wilkin, Sheriff and Mrs. Harry Brown and Paul Maier, Chris Hansen and Milt Nelson.

Orinda AAU To Sponsor Theatrical

Fun for fellowship is the keynote for February 28th when Orinda Branch of the American Association of University Women will sponsor the Orinda Dramatists in "Anniversary Waltz." The time is 8:30, the place, Berkeley Little Theatre at Alliston and Grove, the admission $1.50.

The play was a smash comedy hit when it played in San Francisco and both first and second viewings are promised a gay diverting evening by the Dramatists.

Featured as the teen-ager in the cast is Hester Harris, a thirteen year old Pine Grove student in Orinda. Also cast is Philip Stearns, who has had professional experience with the Henry Duffey Players at the Alcazar Theatre in San Francisco. Others, most of them veterans of other Dramatist productions, include Katie Genesey, Grace Duffy, John Antonio, Betty Reynolds, Kal Knickerbocker, Charlotte Chappelle, and Steve Flint. Carl Rasmussen is the director.

This light hearted evening takes on its serious side as money raised contributes to nearly one hundred fellowships and international grants given annually by the American Association of University Women.

Forty-five fellowships will be given this year to American women to study on the graduate level at the university and in the country of their choice.

As many international grants will bring scholars and professional women from other countries all over the world for a year's study in the United States. This unique program, initiated in a time of great need at the end of World War II, continues to reap rich rewards as graduates, in addition to gaining a years study, become good ambassadors, interpreting their own countries to Americans and taking back a new understanding of America to their own people.

Miramonte Mirror

By SALLIE DeWITT

TRADITIONS
Miramonte seems to be on the way to acquiring traditions. The school's trophies will soon be on display. The trophies number 4½; the half will be explained in a moment.

The most recent trophy is the one from our basketball tournament which was held December 13 and 14. This was received for having the best rooting section of the several schools. At the moment it is being engraved.

Dixon Farmer's speech trophy for his winning school speech in the "Voice of Democracy" nationwide contest, helps show that the school is coming of age. The plaque was presented by the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce.

TRACK TROPHY
The Matador B track team won the 1957 North Coast Section first place trophy. The award, however, rotates among the winning schools. It has been exchanged since 1941. As long as we win it, we can keep it, otherwise this is where the half comes in. We have a permanent plaque to keep to remember our winning, no matter what happens.

Miramonte has its own sportsmanship award, given each year to the boy who shows the best all around cooperation and the et ceteras that go with sportsmanship.

In 1957 Bicky Clifford received this honor. The school keeps this award, however, in its growing trophy case.

MUSIC FESTIVAL
Twenty-five Miramontians from the band and chorus will go to C.O.P. for a music festival tomorrow. Students from all high schools in California have been invited, with a limited number from each school. The freshmen have been excluded because of space limitations. Mr. Crabb, head of Miramonte's music department, is picking the 25. The festival has been an "honor band" arrangement whereby the students combine efforts in musical selections.

A program was presented by the girls, showing some of the requirements fulfilled in getting their badges.

Girls receiving the First Class award were Patty Anderson, Susan Coker, Donna Driscoll, Katie Jones, Jackie Cockburn, Roberta Nichols, Peggy Simpson, Joan Ehle, Carol McColl, Patty Sullivan, Byrness Thrailkill, and Pat Spangler.

Also receiving awards were Patricia Winkwitz, Terry Clarke and Kathleen Lambright.

As a troop the girls earned the Swimmer, Outdoor Cook, Games, Adventurer and Athletic badges. An investiture ceremony was held for Diane Brysowitz.

Friendship Tea

Brownies of Troop 341, under the leadership of Mrs. Martin Jacobs and Mrs. Marvin Miller, entertained their mothers at a World Friendship Tea at which the girls received their World Friendship pins. The tea was held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Skinner in Orinda.

International projects done by the girls to earn the award were on exhibit. Among these were examples of modified Mexican Pinatas which the girls made and sent to Weimar Sanitarium at Christmas time along with a box of dolls and toys for the sick children.

Each girl chose a country and told about the scrapbook she had made on the country, gave the Brownie Promise as it would be given in that country and displayed a doll dressed according to the costume of her chosen land.

The entire troop performed a French song and minuet and at the close of the Tea, mothers joined daughters in a Padvinsters Wishing Circle.

Members of the troop are Barbara Auld, Kris Hecathorn, Candy Jacobs, Sally Lucas, Louise Miller, Chris Patton, Joan Portello, Sally Skinner and Laurie Wierenga.

Town Meet on 'City' Will Probably Be February 26

The public town meeting at which the long-awaited report of the Lafayette Incorporation Study Committee is scheduled to be made is now tentatively scheduled for February 26.

Decision to delay the gathering for about two weeks was reached Wednesday night by the board of the Lafayette Improvement Association, the organization which is sponsoring the town meeting.

Charles Baake, association secretary, said yesterday that the place of the town meeting has not yet been determined. The gathering may be held at Lafayette Town Hall or at a school auditorium, he added.

PRESIDENT William Zion stated that a delay from the originally scheduled date of next Wednesday is necessary because final details of the incorporation study report have not been completed.

Still being awaited, he explained, is the report of the police and fire protection subcommittee.

At last Wednesday night's board meeting at Town Hall, Ted Barcelona and Campbell Macphail, co-chairmen of the subcommittee on finances, reported that their unit's work was virtually complete. This subcommittee has been studying the latest data from the state regarding sales tax receipts and also figures on gasoline tax and motor vehicle allocations.

WILLIAM BOLCE is chairman of the Lafayette Incorporation Study Committee. The study has been under way for nine or 10 months; it followed a preliminary report last year by Zion on the economics of incorporation. Although inspired by Zion's report, the Lafayette Incorporation Study Committee has been functioning independently of the Lafayette Improvement Association.

At the Wednesday night session the improver board unanimously endorsed the proposed tax rate ceiling hike from $1.75 to $2.25 per $100 assessed valuation for the Acalanes High School District. The proposal will be decided by the voters February 25.

Directors' approval was voted after a talk by William B. Freeman, Acalanes High School District trustee.

THE DIRECTORS heard a report on progress of the Lafayette Community Center project by Theron Nelson, president of the Center, and two other representatives of that group.

Announcement was made that Charles Guiguere of Hidden Valley, has been named to the improver board, to replace Arthur Dobson, who resigned last October because he was moving out of the area.

Brotherhood Is A Way Of Life -- An Attitude

Brotherhood is an attitude. It is a feeling that can be learned by individuals; taught by individuals—and destroyed by individuals.

Next week is National Brotherhood Week, and we take this opportunity to join with others in noting the values of that attitude Brotherhood.

They are not ephemeral values—values which are with us today and changed tomorrow.

They are the values of a way of thinking—and for some it has been a way of life.

AN OUTSTANDING example of Brotherhood as a spirit is available in the work of the noted Dr. Schweitzer who changed the course of his whole life to bring his philosophy and skill to the natives of Africa.

This kind of sacrifice, in the name of the Brotherhood of Man, is so far beyond the abilities of most of us that we can only wonder at the kind of man capable of this kind of action.

But his actions—and his faith—can serve to brighten a spark of Brotherhood in each of us, and thereby enrich our lives and the lives of our friends, our neighbors and our community.

Brotherhood can, after all, be approached from the selfish standpoint. Nobody benefits from the feeling of Brotherhood as much as he who tries to live by its principles.

THE ATTITUDE of Brotherhood is not one that we can file in a prominent place in our mind, and say to ourselves each morning: "Today I will practice Brotherhood."

This attitude may help for a while in developing a deeper feeling—a way of life—but in the end it must be an unconscious attitude.

When this attitude is deeply ingrained in each of us, then we may be surprised at the results. It would be amazing, we think, to note the changes that would occur in zoning fights, county politics, and other evils that beset our present way of life.

This change in attitude, of course, will not happen probably in our lifetime. But it can happen in the lifetime of our children.

Brotherhood week to next week. Wouldn't this be a good time to think seriously about methods of providing this attitude of Brotherhood for your children so that they may carry it with them for the rest of their lives?

Thanks, and Hats Off To Boy Scout Leaders

The Boy Scouts of America, as an organization, has enriched the lives of hundreds of thousands of boys throughout the world, and has provided the same service for literally thousands of boys in Contra Costa County.

This week is Boy Scout Week, and we join individuals and organizations universally who thank the Boy Scouts for what they have done for our boys. It is only fitting that we note the tremendous problems that are besetting the Boy Scouts as they continue their good work.

PROBABLY THEIR greatest problem is in recruiting adequate adult leaders... and of course, what is needed is not adequate leaders, but superior leaders.

There is a tremendous need for men who will give of their time and talents in this worthwhile work. We know of some troops which have been discontinued because of complete lack of leadership, or else because of apathetic leadership.

This is a real tragedy. It is regrettable that youngsters who are eager for training and organized work such as is provided by the Boy Scouts should be denied because of lack of interest of adults.

It is also regrettable that some boys—and this goes for girls' organizations too—are dropping out of activities because of lack of interest.

In many cases this lack of interest can be directly attributed to lack of good leadership.

NOW IT IS VERY easy for all of us to sit back and say, "too bad." It is simple to deplore the lack of leadership from our favorite armchair.

There is, of course, only one answer. It is not somebody else's problem. It is ours, directly. If we, as individuals, do not provide the leadership, how can we expect somebody else to do the job?

We can't just sit back and let the other guy do the work. So stop and think—now—as Boy Scout week comes to a close.

It is a worthwhile movement, and it provides the kind of experience in social activities that can be acquired in few other places.

Can you help? It is not only a duty, it is a privilege.

Pax Vobiscum Commutatori.

Monday, I was a commuter.

For the first time in the two years that I have been living in Contra Costa I took that same route that thousands of other central county residents take every day to San Francisco.

Up at the miserable hour of 6:30, (I usually don't arise until 8) I managed to awaken everyone in the house, tried eating some breakfast and did finally get underway by 8 sharp.

I JOTTED down the time that I left my Pleasant Hill home just for kicks. There were quite a few cars coming down from Monument Boulevard and up toward Gregory Lane and Pleasant Hill Road. It just took seven minutes to go from Contra Costa Highway via Gregory Lane; the Pleasant Hill Bypass and Pleasant Hill Road to arrive at the Lafayette Bypass.

"Say, this is great," I thought to myself as I wizzed along the bypass at (gulp) 55 miles per hour.

Just a little over a minute later I was looking at the Upper Happy Valley turnoff sign, but noticed the traffic was getting pretty thick and I had slowed to 35.

I HAD A 9:30 appointment in the city and thought I'd have plenty of time for a cup of coffee and more than ample time to find a parking place around Seventh and Mission, the Post Office Building.

About 100 feet past the Upper Happy Valley Road Sign, the traffic stopped. Stopped dead. Eight minutes and about one-fifth of a mile after the jammed-up line of cars wound its way as far as the El Nido Rancho.

Hundreds of cars were trying to get onto Mt. Diablo Boulevard proper from the Lafayette lanes. The bypass cars were trying by any way possible of avoiding the right hand lanes where the cars were trying to turn and get into the left hand lanes.

FOUR MINUTES later and after some near fender benders the line arrived at Upper Happy Valley Road. At 20 miles per hour we wandered up the first tunnel grade and made it to

More tie up. After Charles Hill it was 40 all the way to Orinda Interchange and there...

"The're off and running... Looked like the stock car races... Better make up the five car lengths you lost at Charles Hill... I know some of the cars could have gone faster if the gas pedal would go down another three inches..."

THIS WAS 8:27. More jam up at the end of the interchange, but the third lane in the west bound traffic made all the difference in the world. We went about 40 all the way to the tunnel and got there at 8:33.

After the tunnel it was smooth driving all the way down Broadway and MacArthur and arrived at the Bridge at 8:45. Not bad time at all to me, but maybe to an experienced commuter... Who knows.

The bridge traffic was like a Sunday afternoon without the Sunday drivers. No flats, no wrecks, just a lot of cars going west and very few going east.

PARKING PLACES in San Francisco are rare and I finally ended up in a parking lot several blocks away from the Post Office Building.

Time 9:24. Coffee: NO! I later checked with the Highway Patrol at the Bridge Station and asked what the peak rush hours were. I was told from approximately 7:15 to 8:15.

I also checked in Contra Costa. Here I learned the peak hours in the morning are from 7 to approximately 7:45. Missed them completely.

As for being a commuter: A fellow in a great big car cut in front of me at least three times from El Nido to Orinda Interchange.

BOY, DID THIS push me out of shape. The last time, I crammed the binders and almost ended up with a Pontiac in my back seat.

Just as I was about to forget the Golden Rule, I saw his license number. It started out PAX and I thought to myself:

"Pax vobiscum, commutatori."

Lover Soap Is the Dope To Make Your Feet Neat

By Pat Pending

Before we return to Chevrolet City, guess what! Another blasted commercial!

The announcer is bald as an egg. What he thought was hair oil turned out to be his wife's Nair.

"Lover Soap is so tenderly caressing!"

Girls, Lover Soap is moonlight dripping through magnolia trees embracing your eager, young body in romantic ecstasy! Lover Soap lulls you into sweet lassitude so that you'll dream of the magic of starlit night; coconut palms; the ever-restless waves lapping o'er rose coral onto a sandy, Tahitian beach!

Lover Soap is to your fragile skin what Sputnik is to Muttnik; what Mahatma was to Gandhi; what an oyster is to a pearl!

So! Rush right out and get a carload of Lover Soap. That's Lover—spelled L-O-V-E-R. Lover Soap is made by the makers of Lady Clear All. Lady Clear All recommends that you put whipped cream on your head and use your Mixmaster to really have a sunbeam in your hair. Remember our slogan!

Lover Soap
Is the dope
To make your feet
Smell clean and neat!

On to Chevrolet City!
AH HA! We don't know who the villain is but we just found out where he is! He never likes to do a good turn so he did a bad one! It was on the Lafayette freeway and he ended up in Los Angeles. He didn't have the money to buy gas so he sold his car and is due to arrive in Chevrolet City by train at high noon if they don't tear out the Key System tracks first and divert him to Ford in Milpitas.

Mutt Dullon has received a Western Union message that bring tears to his eyes! The villain is out to get him 'cause Mutt had him sent to prison to improve his I at "Q".

Mutt's unhappy because it's his wedding day. Shy Anne has finally persuaded him to marry her so that she can help him reduce his income tax. The Short Stem is already being decorated for the occasion. They've brought the hitchhail inside and are now discussing which way the bride should walk through the horses.

MUTT MISSES his watch and, just in time, his parrot coughs it up (after Chess Turf tried to wind it by twisting the bird's neck). Now Mutt can tell how close it is to noon if he can figure out how to read the watch.

Mutt is impatient. He wants to get the marriage over with before the villain arrives. Mutt never did have any patience. He wishes he were like Dock who has had plenty of patients since coming to Chevrolet City.

Heroine (the heroine) is frantically trying to sober up Par Snip in time for the ceremony but Par thinks he's a bar stool and wants to go for a spin. Arti Choke knows Heroine wants to make it a double wedding so he slips out to see if he can find a double.

About this time the Loan Arranger enters the Short Stem. He's all stove up from riding the range hunting for Lead Office. He insists that the sign "Saloon" be removed from the front of the building because he never goes into anything but cafes.

HE'S ALWAYS on the side of Peace and Justice, so Mutt commends him to act as Justice of the Peace and tie the knot between him and Shy Anne. Just as the Loan Arranger says: "I now pronounce you Mutt and wife," the cuckoo clock on the back bar starts cuckooing eleven o'clock and Mutt realizes it's only an hour 'till high noon.

Tune in next week for the thrilling climax

Letters to The Editor

MORE CHURCH AND STATE

Dear Editor:
Noting the argument about Christmas programs in the public schools:

The founders of this nation knew from the bitter experience of many centuries that the injection of sectarian religious influence into any public activity meant sooner or later either the loss of religious liberty to the machinations of some particular sect, or the payment of a heavy price to maintain it.

Consider for instance the situation in Great Britain where a taxpayer has to support the established church even though he does not belong to or agree with it. In some other countries you have only one church that you can belong to legally and in others you can belong only by accepting the position of a second-class citizen; as note the condition in Russia, where Communism is the established religion. (It is a religion in every respect, even if its God is force and not love.)

FROM THE BEGINNING of this country, there have been clergy who have tried to subvert the sacred principle of separation of Church and State, and they are still at it. They gained considerable force when they got the words "under God" inserted into the flag pledge, and they have made serious encroachments in other quarters.

If James Dent wants to know what's going on around here, that's simple. A number of people in various parts of the country have awakened to the insidious nature of this procedure and are beginning to resist.

Let one thing after another continue like this and in course of time the rising generations will be conditioned to a move to exclude all citizens except Christians (and maybe, with luck, Jews) from holding public office. This has already been advocated. Next, that particular creed that gains enough political power will narrow it down finally to the religious slavery that most of mankind had to put up with until the foundation of the Republic.

THE CONSTITUTION established the principle unconditionally. The propaganda that the Republic was established on a Christian basis is simply a classic lie. The Declaration named "Nature and nature's God." That means any religion of any sort, Christian, Jewish, or whatnot, has equal rights. It also includes the rights of atheists and agnostics.

Citizenship rights are rights of conduct and useful living, not of religious belief or lack thereof. Atheists have been as good citizens as any others on the average. That is all the laws and the public institutions have any business being concerned with. There are enough churches to take care of religious matters.

The reasoning behind the sectarian efforts is well exemplified by the letter from Mildred Gragg. "In God we trust" does not specify what God. It can apply to any Christian sect, any Jew, any Brahmin or Buddhist or any other religion.

EVEN SO, it is a violation of the spirit of the Constitution; it seems that the argument is, if you have a long-standing violation, that is a good reason to add some more to it. In regard to the Oath of Allegiance—same. In the courts, one who does not believe in the Bible is allowed to affirm rather than to swear. It should be the same with the Oath of Allegiance.

So long as any public procedure embodies a forced profession of belief in any particular kind of God, or any particular order of the Universe, insofar it makes a second class citizen of anyone who believes otherwise.

If Dent wants Christmas programs in his school, let him put on an equal number celebrating Buddha and Krishna. Then he can call it non-sectarian. Not otherwise. And otherwise, let him keep out of church business.

I am writing both as a citizen of the United States and as a heavy taxpayer in Contra Costa County.

And definitely not as an atheist.

V. A. Endersby.

HEART FACTS

The heart diseases weaken the nation's productivity, causing an annual economic loss of $3 billion dollars and an additional loss of $400,000,000 in Federal income taxes, according to the American Heart Association. The Contra Costa County Heart Association, chapter of the national heart organization, is now conducting the 1958 Heart Fund drive here.

Crewman Returns to Wife After 10 Years at South Pole

Pfc. Rudolph Thriftikowski and his wife May, of Contra Costa County, were reunited yesterday, after a ten-year separation which Pfc. Thriftikowski spent at the South Pole.

Pfc. Thriftikowski, sporting a ten-year beard to his knees, explained that he and his wife separated ten and a half years ago because of what he called "financial disagreements." He signed up as a crewman on the next expedition leaving for the South Pole and has remained there since.

Last month a very severe snowstorm almost demolished the insulated igloo where Pfc. Thriftikowski and Lionel, a Kodiak bear he imported from Alaska, were living, when they were discovered by an exhausted pen-

Under The Sun

Here's Where to Take the Kids on Rainy Afternoon

BY HERMAN SILVERMAN

What do you and the kids do on a very rainy week-end afternoon?

Well, last Sunday the kids and I took off and decided on a real good movie, while Eleanor went to a meeting. Afterward we stopped for hamburgers and had a fun time. There are many, many other places to go that will delight the family. I've discussed them before and today will present some new ideas.

These ideas come from a wonderful book that I described some weeks ago—"Let's Go—a family Guide to Fun in the Bay Area." This is a comprehensive 72 booklet compiled and published by the American Association of University Women, Richmond Branch. It is a wonderful, wonderful pamphlet, published as a public service by this non-profit group. The copyright booklet, revised in 1957, is so good that we decided you should have one. The Sun has copies available to you. Here is how you can get one:

Here's How You Can Get One!

1. Send 78c (not cash please) to The Sun with a short note and clearly PRINT your name, mailing address, city and phone number. We will mail it to you.

(Addresses: Orinda: PO Box 147, Walnut Creek: PO Box 1038, Pleasant Hill: PO Box 123, Lafayette: PO Box 806.)

2. Or come to The Sun office. (Lafayette-Orinda: 1000 Oak Hill Rd., Lafayette; Walnut Creek-Pleasant Hill: 1320 Locust St., Walnut Creek.)

I described the book to you before but here are some passages from it—where you can go for family fun:

Boat races are often held on Lake Merritt. You can go for a boat ride around the lake, too. 15 cents for grown-ups, 10 cents for children. THE WILD DUCK REFUGE is a stop-off for thousands of wild birds which are fed daily in the wintertime at 3:30 p.m. BEE HIVE ON EXHIBIT in Rotary Natural Science Center, Lakeside Park, adjacent to the Duck Feeding Area. No admission charge.

J. R. Knowland State Park and Arboretum, or East Bay Botanical and Zoological Gardens, 98th Avenue and Mountain Boulevard, Sweetwood 8-0320. Open daily 9 to 6. The ZOO includes beloved Effie, the elephant, who gives performances by special arrangement, and Rose Bud, the trained chimpanzee performs for visitors. Stables for riding. One-mile train ride through park. Play areas for various age-groups. Picnic areas. Admission to park, 25c.

Trains Are Always Fascinating

AAALLL ABOARD! Just watching trains pull into or out of the station gives a thrill to "car bound" youngsters and grownups alike. Oakland and East Bay towns are terminals for Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, and Western Pacific trans-continental streamliners. The passenger agents of these railroads will provide guides for group tours of trains and round houses. For instance, call the Santa Fe Office in Richmond, BEacon 4-6234, Extension 23, for a tour of a train, the shops, and to find out when trains are loaded on the ferry at the foot of Garrard Boulevard in Richmond.

LIGHTHOUSES. The two local lighthouses—Oakland Harbor Light at Western Pacific Mole in Oakland and Yerba Buena Light on Treasure Island are open to the public Saturday, Sunday, and holidays from 2 to 4 p.m. No reservations needed.

BERKELEY FISHING PIER at the foot of University Avenue. Here we find fishing is allowed without a license. Children may fish free. There is a small admission charge for adults.

LIVERMORE VALLEY is beautiful with wild flowers in late March and April. Take Highway 50 east through Dublin and explore the back roads around Livermore. Go south of Highway 21 and visit Mission San Jose, if you're making a day of it.

FORT ROSS, Sonoma County, 12 miles north of Jenner, is a restored Russian fort first built in 1812, and is now a State Monument consisting of a stockade, lookout tower, and a chapel. Museum. Unusually interesting, and only remnant of Russian colony. Free. There are hundreds more just like this.

Letters to The Editor

VETS' EXEMPTIONS

Dear Editor:
We who live in the Acalanes School District are asked to vote a fifty cent tax limit increase and unfortunately, as Bob Kahn stated in his letter to the Sun, the greatest tax revenue loss occurs in the school districts.

The veterans concentrate in that area and many take the $1000 property tax exemption. The cost of sending one child through elementary school is about $400 per year, and the average family sends three children, which means a cost of $1200. The veteran with a $3000 assessed value on his home, minus the $1000 exemption rate, 19.00 per hundred, pays $180 taxes, hence the huge deficit. The loss in tax revenue to the county through veterans tax exemption is roughly $3,000,000 per year, as we have over 30,000 veterans on the exemption rolls.

In 1911 Article XIII was added to the State Constitution. This entitled the war veteran to $1000 property tax exemption, provided said veteran's total assets did not exceed $5000. In 1922 section 14 was added to Article XIII. This entitled any veteran residing in the state the right to the exemption. The same assets held. The constitution regarding this has not been changed. Due to the large increase in veteran population, 1,100,000 now take the exemption in the state—an increase of 61,855 over last year. The last two figures are from the State Board of Equalization released

Oct. 24, 1957. We now have about ninety percent out-of-state veterans, who take the exemption. It seems that section 14 should be repealed by the Legislature.

No other state will permit the California veteran to collect benefits allowed the home state veteran. It means many of the out-of-state veterans have collected from their home state, moved here and collected from California. As a consequence, the California vet has lost his exemption, due to his small representation in population. Let us contact our Representatives in the Legislature and express our views on this subject. Bruce Dillman

HONORED

Dear Editor:
I would like to again thank you and your staff for the courtesies and consideration shown in sending of the Man of the Year award in Pleasant Hill. I think that the award tends to encourage more active participation in community affairs by recognizing those who participate. I was honored and flattered to be the recipient this year.

My special thanks are certainly due Bob Rapida and Harry Maroules for their excellent story and picture which appeared in the paper.

I hope that you will accept these heart-felt thanks for your contributions and the honor accorded me this year.

Janet Loe Is New Bride; Will Move to San Jose

After their honeymoon in Yosemite National Park, the former Janet Helen Loe and her new husband, Robert D. Schwab, will resume studies at San Jose State College, Monday.

Janet and Robert were joined in holy wedlock by Rev. James Upshaw in the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church, February 2. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Dent Loe of 2200 Ygnacio Valley Road. She was given away by her father.

Janet wore a floor length white taffeta gown, with a scoop neckline. The bodice was moulded with taffeta folds and trimmed with re-embroidered lace. Her fingertip veil had three tiers of illusion net held in place by a lace bandeau. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and white carnations.

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. William Hirschfield Jr. of Redwood City, who was married last September.

James Cragin of San Jose was best man, and ushers were Stafford Miller of Oregon and William Hirschfield, Jr.

Only close friends and relatives attended the ceremony.

The couple will continue their studies at San Jose State. Janet had been studying at Stanford University, Palo Alto.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Schwab of Peoria, Ill.

Slavens Plan Hawaii Trip

Mr. and Mrs. George Slavens of Harrison Avenue, Walnut Creek, will leave February 28 for the Hawaiian Islands.

Lincoln Had Pizza on His Birthday

Luigi Lincoln, Father of Italian-American good will in the booming metropolis of North San Ramon, California, celebrated his birth with a pizza dinner for 16 of his friends and his only two enemies. When asked about this unusual situation, where his enemies were asked to his birthday party, he explained "I wanted to get even with them. I told this guy Bryman that runs THE HUDDLE INN in Lafayette that I wanted these two guys to get his worst pizza. I wanted them to be there while my sixteen friends ate his super-duper Flaming Pizza. I was really going to show them how low they rated with me."

PLAN BACKFIRES

"But the plan backfired on me," explained Lincoln, distant cousin of the famous American President. "Now these guys think I'm their greatest friend. It turned out that the worst pizza this guy Bryman can make is better than anything they ever tasted and they come from a long line of pizza-makers in the old country. In fact, they almost broke me. Do you know that those two guys ate so many pizza that it cost me more for them than it did for the other 16?"

BRYMAN DISCLAIMS

When questioned about this, Marty Bryman, genial host at THE HUDDLE INN said "Before I tell you what happened, I want you to promise me that you will get our name in — you spell it H-U-D-D-L-E I-N-N and we are at 3654 Mt. Diablo Blvd in Lafayette. OK? Well, I tried hard to please Luigi. After all, he is one of my best customers. I made the worst kind I knew how to make — but I guess that is still pretty good pizza. It was our Pizza Machiavelliana from a recipe handed down from Lucretia Borgia — it's a devil of a pizza."

BRYMAN REPORTS ON LICENSE

Bryman also reported on the mystery of the "lost" beer license. He said his counselor-at-law advised him that a week had passed since last week (which Bryman knew) and so he is now a week closer to getting a beer license (which Bryman also knew). He still asks his friends to drop in at 3654 Mt. Diablo Blvd and hear his tale of woe — over HUDDLE INN PIZZA AND COFFEE. If you insist on beer with your pizza, call Atlantic 4-4185 for pizza-to-go and he will tell you his problems when you call to pick it up.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER
YE 4-3818

COLOR was the keynote for the tremendously successful GOP "Spectacular" last week. The decorating emphasis was on Valentines and at the entrance to the Diablo Country Club there stood a huge red heart which had been fashioned out of hundreds of paper carnations.

It had a fluffy border of the same flowers in white. From the ceiling of the ballroom hung the most interesting mobiles from which valentines of all sizes were suspended.

ON EACH OF THE LONG tables were large hearts, trimmed quaintly with doves, roses and cupid and edged with frilly lace. Mrs. Ted Counter, who was responsible for the decor, received a most appreciative round of applause from the audience. And such an audience it was! So large, in fact, that all of those women, who had worked so diligently for weeks on this project, had to sit in the private dining room.

I noticed, however, that it did not dim their spirits. Some of these women were the Mmes. Donald Doyle, Matt Connely, Edmund Barnett, Robert Preece, A. D. Lindsay, John Enright, William Anderson, Harmon Howard and Frank Young.

Commentator for the fashion show was Mrs. Marre Stuber — a most unusual and interesting person. Marre is the fashion coordinator for the Fashion Institute and, being a designer, she wore one of her own creations which I wouldn't even DARE describe. Couldn't decide whether it looked very old or very new—but it WAS different!

All the models were outstanding!!!

All of the models were outstanding models from all of the Contra Costa area. One was the charming and beautiful Delores (Mrs. Sam) Conti who wore a stark white pique sailor type sacque dress. The sailor collar, bib and bow were of bright red, as were the buttons down the front. ON HER it looked good. Gertrude Bohac looked adorable in a white polished cotton which was printed in blue and with which she wore a blue bolero: perfect for the evenings on a cruise ship.

Ruth Hartman, who didn't model, but should have—looked so chic in a black silk sacque which was belted in the front. With it she wore a white straw bonnet which was accented with a huge red rose matched with the brightest red pumps I've ever seen.

BETTY HAGSTROM looked fair and lovely as a bride in the very newest of styles—you know, the balloon type skirt—hobbled at the knees. The better to walk slowly down the aisle, my dear. Could go on and on and on—but will close this portion by listing a few of the enthusiastic guests—Marjorie Humphrey, Margaret Ditzler, Betty Giffen, Alice Keeling, Jane Gillig, Millie McIntosh, Marg Stimpson, Azella Woodburn, Wilda Riser, Esther Schimbor, Ellen Bradbard, Rosemary Caldwell and "Nickie" Williams.

Recreating from "wedding-go-round" activities is the Stuart Loe family of Walnut Creek. Exquisite Janet Loe became the bride of Robert Schwab a week ago at the Presbyterian Church. The ceremony was relatively simple—but oh! so lovely. Janet's ivory faille gown featured a long torso bodice and greatly flared hoop skirt. Her sister, who was her sole attendant, wore azure blue lace with matching Juliet cap, long gloves and slippers. All of the guests, 100 or so, were invited to the reception at the Loe home on Ignacio Road.

Bob's parents arrived from Illinois the day of the rehearsal and remained here for about a week, so, of course, Mr. and Mrs. Loe were busy squiring them about. They all visited friends in San Jose and Sausalito. Thoroughly "covering" San Francisco. Meanwhile, Janet and Bob were honeymooning, in Southern California.

They have both returned to their studies at San Jose State College and are "at home" in their new apartment there.

Red, White, but NOBODY Blue!

The "Red and White Ball," presented by the Alta Bates Volunteers at the Claremont Hotel Saturday night, was a "smasher." Don't remember when there has been a more festive dinner-dance. The tables were decorated with just scads and scads of red carnations which spilled from inverted, large straw hats. Hung above the bandstand was a large and comical bumble bee which had been made by talented Helen (Mrs. James) McCollum.

Helen was wearing the most dramatic ball gown which she had designed. It was of white satin printed with huge pink hydranges. The gown was molded and slim in the front, but lowly cut back was accented with a huge bustle and train.

Entertaining before the ball were Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Binckhoff of Lafayette. All of their guests were Doctors and their wives. Some of these were the William Picards, Frank Schnuggs, Cyril Callisters, Gordon Holmes (Mrs. Holmes looked stunning in a white satin skirt and white cashmere sweater which was trimmed with the same satin), Milton Waldmans, Robert Brigante, and Samuel W. Smiths (Mrs. Smith had on the most heavenly pale pink brocade sheath).

Others from our area who were spotted among the dancers were the Don Parle Whites (Pat, as usual, causing raves in a short, bouffant, black lace formal, and Don looking very handsome, as as most men do in formal wear—don't you think?), the Donald Lawries, Lester Hinks Jr., and the Harold Hawes.

A flying trip—with surprise

Back from a trip by air to Detroit, is Jinny (Mrs. Beverly) Wilder. The occasion—her mother's retirement from her position in the Wayne County office there. The event was celebrated by about 100 fellow workers and friends gathering for an evening of dining and fun. Jinny's appearance at the dinner party was a complete surprise to her mother—and a very happy one it was. Her lively mother has taken off for an unlimited stay in Florida.

Are you ready for the "Flicker" luncheon-fashion show tomorrow? As many of you know it is always one of the best of the Spring events. As usual the theme will be "With You in View," but not as usual—some of the models will be little tots, sons and daughters of the members.

Two of the daughters are Betsy Williams and Linda Barron and two sturdy fellows are Robbie Schroeder and Bobbie Fugazi—who will be strictly Ivy League according to Grodin's.

Goldman's, again, will furnish the fashions for the feminine set. Janet Lieber is the chairman and Nancy Williams is planning very unusual decorations, I hear.

To top it all off, that master of wit, Paul Speegle, will be there to air his views—and WHAT views they are! Hope to see you there.

Women's Club To View Blooms

The Garden Section of the Lafayette Women's Club will leave by chartered Greyhound Bus Tuesday February 18 for San Francisco to view spring blossoms at the Aboretorium in Golden Gate Park.

The event is being planned by Mrs. Harold Caddell, chairman. She has made arrangements for the group to have refreshments at the Japanese Tea Garden following the tour.

Previous bus trips to near-by garden spots have been very successful.

Children's Home Groups Plan 1st Decorator Show

All residents of Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek will be interested in Robin Hood Chapter Children's Home Society First Annual Decorator Show, not only because of the interest of their local chapters, Pandora, Heidi, Humpty-Dumpty, Raggedy Ann, but also because Joe and Jean Downs of Orinda are participating in the show.

The show will feature a seven-room, three-story, Victorian mansion, located at 1000 Paru Street, Alameda, which will be completely refurbished and decorated by some of the top decorators in the Bay Area and will be on view to guests from February 22nd to March 2nd.

The show, the first of its kind in the East Bay, will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The rooms of the home, which was built in the late 1800's by J. Heberer, will be changed into contemporary rooms, tying in the most beautiful decor of today blended with the nostalgia of yesteryear.

Joe and Jean Downs of Orinda are decorating a contemporary sitting room, combining antiques with modern to show the mellowness of copper. They are featuring a London street light which has been converted to a bird cage, and a coffee table made from a large Italian copper candy cauldron with a 36" round white marble top. On either side of the coffee table will be two white camel saddles with copper seats. The Downs have used brown bamboo drapes woven with white chenille and copper, white carpeting and a few antique tan-su chest.

Meadowbrook Golfers Set Valentine Dance

Hearts and flowers, Cupid's bows and lovers' knots... those are the things that will make the atmosphere at Meadowbrook Golf Club's Saturday dance. The Valentine party will begin at 9:00 p.m. at the clubhouse in Reliez Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Herrala of Walnut Creek are general chairmen of the dance, the leading social event for February at the club. The decorating committee, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Krapeska, of Orinda, is a very important part of the planning for the dancing party. An interior decorator, Kirsten Krapeska, is creating a climate of sentimentality as the setting for the Valentine Day celebration. She will be combining decorator materials with traditional flowers and Valentine designs for the final romantic effects.

Dancing to the musical combination of the Blue Notes from Martinez will be in the reception at 7:30 p.m. at the Mt. Diablo room and in the new adjoining terrace room. In the anterooms, hors d'oeuvres will be served during the evening and a late evening supper will complete the party.

"Love on the Rocks" was discarded in favor of "The Tender Trap" as the title of the potpourri especially concocted for the evening. By design the reservations for the party, have been made by the part.

Pitt, Diablo All Tied Up

Pittsburg and Mt. Diablo are tied up in the varsity division as the result of Pitt defeating Diablo last Tuesday night and it's a go down to the wire with but four games to go.

The Pitt Bees appear to be in as they are the circuit's only undefeated team. Games tonight find Diablo a favorite over the Dons in the Acalanes gym.

LAS LOMAS will take Miramonte at Walnut Creek and Pitt is the favorite at Pleasant Hill. Pacifica rates the nod in a game at Antioch.

All games start with Bees at 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday afternoon with the lightweights opening at 3:30, it's Acalanes in a toss up at Pleasant Hill; Las Lomas to travel to Pacifica for a win; Diablo over Miramonte at Orinda and Pittsburg taking Antioch at the Pitt courts.

THE PITTSBURG lightweights won their 10th straight by defeating Mt. Diablo with a 51-41 score.

In the thrill-packed varsity game the up-to-then league leading Devils were toppled from the undefeated ranks when they lost a 39-32 decision and were thrown into a tie with Pitt for top standings.

Pirates held a 22-19 half time advantage and hung on for the win.

Pitt's guard, Al Hurtado, had 18 points while guard Dave Berger had 12 for the Devils.

Matadors Win First League Basketball Game 48-44

The Miramonte Matadors came through last Friday night to rack up their first win in varsity history when they toppled the Antioch Panthers 48-44.

Spearheaded by their ace, Bill Houston, the Mats fought to a 16-11 first quarter lead and then hung on for the win although they were forced to come from behind in the second half as Antioch took the halftime lead when they meshed 19 points to the visitors' seven.

THE PAPER CITY five took a 30-23 lead as a result of their efforts. In the third stanza, the Orinda team made its bid as they combined tight play with a good offense. They regained the lead as the Matadors outscored Antioch 16-4.

Antioch didn't pick up a point in the final quarter but fell short with a final 48-44 count.

ANTIOCH'S LEAGUE leading scorer, Dave Kirkpatrick, stole scoring honors with 17 on six field goals and five three pointers.

Bill Houston besides putting on a sterling all around performance, wound up with runner up scoring honors with 15 on a pair of three throws and 11 points on the charity line.

Seven of the winners hit the scoring column while five did for the Panthers.

Antioch hit 18 field goals and 16 for the Mats. At the free throw line it was—Matadors 16, Antioch 8.

Antioch had but 14 field goals on 46 shots. The Knights' Clark Ransome had 22 points on 9 field goals (9FG-1 FT).

D. Kent had 19 for Antioch (9 FG - 1 FT).

The Knights have been impressive in their last two outings and loaded with juniors plus some good sophs. This could be the club to beat in next year's new league.

In fact, they could be an important factor in deciding this year's championship as they play Pittsburg on February 21.

Pitt Dumps Dons 48-36

Pittsburg had one of its poorer nights Friday but the Dons were a step further down the ladder and while it was a low scoring game in the first three quarters Pitt did find the range for a 22-point outburst in the final quarter to win 48-36.

Both clubs were at a low scoring ebb in the first half—Pitt hitting for seven and six while the Dons hit for five and four in the first and second cantos.

ACALANES MISSED numerous setups and with it whatever opportunity they had of upsetting the Pirates.

The Dons did outscore Pitt 15-13 in the third quarter thanks to some good outside shooting by John Phair. Phair was high man with 13.

Knights Rap Antioch 65-45

The Las Lomas Knights were on another scoring spree last Tuesday night and as a result they rapped the Antioch visitors and but good—65-45.

Antioch's lone consolation came when they took the Bee game 33-22.

Shooting a good 41 per cent from the floor by virtue of making 27 of 61 shots, the Knights were never in trouble hitting in the double figures in each and every quarter.

The Knights banged to a commanding half-time lead before coach Merrill Callow inserted a host of reserves in the second half. The reserves did all right on their own, taking the third quarter 14-7 and while Antioch scored 21 in the final eight minutes of play, the Knights were close behind with 20.

Matadors Drop Pair to Dons

The Acalanes Dons captured a pair of hoop games from Miramonte last Friday night.

The Bee game started slow with a 14-14 halftime count but the Dons' Baker pulled away in the second half with reserves rounding in to help.

THE KNIGHTS found the Ram gym to their liking and cracked the hoop for 30 points in the first half with 14 of them coming in the opening quarter.

The Rams were really off as they managed but three points in the first quarter and six in the second to trail 30-9. The Knights really put the frosting on the victory when they cashed in on a 19 point spree.

THE RAMS warmed up a bit to hit for 10 and with reserves in the final round found Pleasant Hill notching nine points to the Rams' eight.

In the free throw column it was close—Las Lomas -5 and Pleasant Hill 12. In the field goals it was a different story—Las Lomas 21 and the Rams 8.

Center Art Dalbey with 14 and forward Clark Ransome with 13 topped the Las Lomas scorers.

Bill Locatelli with nine was best for the Rams.

M.U.D. to Place Water Bond Issue on Ballot

The East Bay Municipal Utility District Board of Directors has moved to place a $252,000,000 bond issue for water system expansion on the June 3 primary election ballot for approval of Utility District voters.

By passing a resolution of public convenience and necessity calling for further water development for the East Bay area, the EBMUD Directors set in motion their huge water development project which has been in the planning stage for 10 years.

Go-ahead on the actual construction of the project will hinge on approval of the proposed bond issue financing, which EBMUD Board President Louis J. Breuner declared can be accomplished without increasing either the District tax or water service rates.

This is possible, Breuner explained, because of the Utility District's demonstrated ability to finance more than $8 million annually in construction from operating revenues, which in the future would be used for bond redemption.

"SINCE WORLD WAR II," said Breuner, "the Utility District has invested more than $79,000,000 in its water distribution system, on a pay-as-you-go basis. Now that the basic water supply system must be expanded as well, a much larger sum is needed for construction over a relatively short period of years. We propose to finance the needed expansion of both supply and distribution facilities from the issuance of $252,000,000 in bonds, and to pay off the bonds with the $8,000,000 or more invested annually in recent years for pay-as-you-go expansion. The unquestioned financial stability of the Utility District will in no way be affected by the redemption of these bonds.

Breuner pointed out the urgent need for the water development project if the Utility District is to continue to meet the water demands of its consumers. The District service area population is now 1,000,000 and is expected to reach 1,296,000 by 1967.

"WATER CONSUMPTION today in the Utility District is nearly five times as great as in 1923, when the District was formed," Breuner related, "and it continues to climb each year. We are rapidly reaching the point where the need for water will exceed our ability to deliver with present supply and distribution facilities."

Breuner explained how the EBMUD expansion program of the post-war years must be augmented in the immediate future.

"In the past decade or more," he said, "we have pursued a stepped-up expansion of distribution reservoirs, pumping plants, distribution mains and service facilities. In the next decade, additions to our distribution system will not be enough. We must also construct major additions to our basic supply system, including new impounding dams, a third aqueduct from our Sierra source of supply, additional terminal reservoir storage, and increased filter plant capacity."

PLANS FOR THE GIANT construction program described by Breuner were completed by Utility District engineers in January, 1958. The preliminary planning was completed in August, 1957, after which the project was reviewed by Bechtel Corporation consultants in a four-month study and review. The Bechtel staff endorsed both the need for the EBMUD water expansion project and its feasibility from an engineering and economic standpoint, in their report submitted in December, 1957. Since then the design changes suggested by the Bechtel study have been incorporated into the final plans by District engineers. The project was presented today to the EBMUD Board of Directors for action.

Total cost of the entire construction project is set at $283,000,000. A portion of the cost, $31,000,000 is planned to be financed from operating revenues, with the balance of $252,000,000 provided by the proposed bond issue.

The water development program for the East Bay area has been designed to meet the predicted future water consumption requirements of the EBMUD service area. The daily average consumption which in 1940 was only 42 million gallons, and today stands at 130 million gallons, is expected to top 200 million gallons daily by 1967.

MAJOR COMPONENTS of the Utility District project, and their estimated cost include:

1. Mokelumne River dams - $42,338,000. New dams for complete development of this source of water.
2. Mokelumne Aqueduct No. 3 - $68,233,000. Steel pipeline to augment two existing aqueducts transporting water 94 miles from the Sierra reservoirs to the East Bay.
3. Terminal Reservoir Storage - $38,906,000. An additional terminal reservoir in the East Bay to store reserve supply of Mokelumne River water.
4. Filter Plants - $14,105,000. Sixty percent increase in filter plant capacity for purification of water supply.
5. Distribution Reservoirs - $26,781,000. More than 60 percent increase in reservoir storage for filtered water supply.
6. Pumping Plants - $4,279,000. Additional pumping plants and regulators throughout the expanded distribution system.
7. Distribution mains - $65,603,000. New pipeline installation totaling 620 miles, an increase of 25 percent over present 2560 miles of pipe in ground.
8. Service facilities - $22,713,000. Additions to the Utility District service facilities, including buildings, service yards, connecting lines and meters.

KEEP CAR CLEAN Keeping your car clean during this season of the year may be more difficult but it's worth that extra effort, points out the National Automobile Club. Let the car stay too dirty too long and you may have to renovate the finish.

It is also our purpose to provide the thrill of seeing real live plays, specially designed for their interests, for as many children as possible throughout the Bay Area all year long."

Many local matrons are donating their time to work as stage crews, box office managers, ushers, and set and costume makers.

Children's Theater members from this side of the tunnel are Mesdames: George Krussi, David Bullen, Charles Merrill, Thos. R. Gaines, Will Hall, H. C. Gathings, Clarence Overea, John Van Dyne, Jack Lackey Jr., Rodney Saylor and Nathan Grey.

Women Voters Postpone Meet of Workshop

The League of Women Voters announced that a change in the Foreign Trade Workshop has been rescheduled from next Monday to February 24, at the home of Mrs. Ross.

Mrs. John H. Selley, president of the LWV has stated this change was made so that League members may attend a talk by Dr. Edward Teller of the University of California on "More Knowledge Today Means More Power Tomorrow" which he will give at Las Lomas High School.

An informal coffee hour and orientation program was held for new and prospective members of the League yesterday.

The League of Women Voters is a non partisan organization whose objective is the promotion of political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government. Women interested in the purposes of the League are invited to attend meetings.

AREN'T THEY LOVELY? Mrs. Roger Leidy asks as she inspects Sterling Furniture Company's "Correlaire" interchangeable furniture, called the furniture with the "thousand personalities." The chair is a Swedish lounge, with dycron filled cushions. The round cocktail table is accompanied by four sectional tables; the lamp is Italian provincial, the screen in the background is Japanese "Shoji." Mrs. Leidy is wearing "The Spring Shift," the newest in chemise fashion, presented by The Country Girl, also in Broadway. Sun Photo by Jim Guthrie.

Broadway Has 'Gold Rush'
During Golden Arrow Days

Broadway, Walnut Creek, experienced a "Gold Rush" during Golden Arrow Days last weekend, according to George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association. Webster, speaking for the Association's steering committee, said there were more people in Broadway than at any time since Christmas. "Everyone benefited from Golden Arrow Days. I mean both the customer seeking bargains and the merchant looking for new customers. "The kind of a problem we like did occur at Capwell's," he continued. "They had to rush in more of the sale gloves by Thursday afternoon due to the demand. Just about all stores reported that business picked up considerably during Golden Arrow Days. "I have been checking with the stores, and they, as a whole, did very well in a comparison of sales figures for a year ago that same weekend was Walnut Creek Dollar Days." Webster said, "I might add that Broadway will offer a tremendous selection for this year's Walnut Creek Dollar Days. Broadway stores are participating in this semi-annual event, which this year is called, appropriately, Abe Lincoln Dollar Days," he said. "Broadway is joining all of Walnut Creek in making this an outstanding event," he added.
